OBITUARY

Irilla Priscilla Myers

December 17, 1937 - December 24, 2018

Obituary

Irilla Priscilla Myers (Red), 81, entered eternal life on December 24, 2018 at her home in Woodbridge, Virginia. Her spirit of love is carried on by her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren; one surviving sister and a host of extended family, relations and friends from every walk of life. We were blessed to learn many valuable lessons from Irilla during her 81 years, her wisdom and knowledge were priceless, and she had genuine love and compassion for all people. Irilla was nonconforming, unconventional, free-spirited, audacious, a maverick and non-conformist; If you had the pleasure of meeting her, you would never forget her!!

Irilla arrived on December 17, 1937 in Cincinnati, Ohio, she was the youngest of ten children. She is preceded in death by her parents John and Ardell Henderson. Irilla was raised by her mother whom she adored, she was the youngest of her mother's ten children. Her fondest memories were of the times she spent with her mother.

In 1956 Irilla graduated from William H. Taft High School, she was in the Glee Club, she excelled in sports; volleyball, swimming, tennis and softball, she also played on a women's softball team along with her sister Rita. At 19 she met her future husband, got married and started a family. During the first half of her marriage, Irilla was a housewife and mother. Within a few years of her marriage, the family moved to Kansas City, Missouri; three years later, they would relocate to West Virginia to be closer to Irilla's in-laws. Irilla was the quintessential city girl, however, she eventually adjusted to the rural life. Her life in West Virginia was good; she lived near her in-laws, and with the support of her mother-in-law to look after her children, she started to work outside the home. Irilla was a jack-of-all trades, she could do it all, census taker, butcher, home improvement and auto-mechanic to name a few. She learned the upholstery business and opened "Red's Upholstery Shop", her business was a success, it gave her a purpose, but most of all, it allowed her to do what she lived for...meeting and talking to people, she LOVED people. West Virginia held a special place in Irilla's heart, because it is where she discovered who she was, and what she was capable of doing. The next chapter in Irilla's life seemed like a whirlwind when her husband accepted a job in Saudi Arabia; Irilla packed up the family and embarked on a once-in-a-lifetime experience, while there, she worked as the Director of the compound recreation center. In two years, she returned to the U.S., and after 23 years of marriage, she decided she was going to "do it her way". In her later years, Irilla settled in Woodbridge, Virginia to be closer to her daughter, granddaughter and precious great granddaughters. She felt blessed to have the love and support of her family.

Irilla had many interests; she was smart and well read on many topics. She was an avid tennis and golf fan and recently had her dream come true; in October she attended her first live tennis match of her two favorite tennis players, Venus and Serena Williams, at the Greenbrier Classic in White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia. Next to watching sports, she was a fishing fanatic, she would bungee cord her fishing gear to her rollator, and when her shoulder prevented her from casting as far as she would have liked to, she enlisted strangers on the pier to cast her line; they did it and loved doing it for her. At 75 she received an iPad for her birthday, she used it every day, took it everywhere, read her bible on it played solitaire and puzzles to keep her mind sharp. But more than anything, Irilla loved the Lord, her family, friends and strangers, people were her passion. Irilla never met a stranger, she was an inspiration to many, and she left a legacy of love. Her motto was "love conquers all".

Irilla was preceded in death by her parents, John and Ardell Henderson; eight siblings, and one granddaughter. Irilla was a loving mother, grandmother and great-grandmother survived by three biological children; Mary Ardell Myers, Sylvestine Myers and Sylvester C. Myers, Jr.; one adopted son, Lawrence Patterson; nine grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren; and her loving sister Rita Dodd.

A memorial service to celebrate Irilla's life will be held at Mountcastle Turch Funeral Home, 4143 Dale Blvd., Dale City, VA, 22193, on Friday, January 18, 2019 at 11:00 am.
